New Congregational Expressions

Beth Shiloh Columbia: This Saturday, May 15th, a Messianic Jewish congregation will begin regular Sabbath worship at Spring Valley Baptist Church. Rabbi Andy Meyerson leads the Beth Shiloh congregation. They have locations in Asheville, Morganton (NC) Spartanburg, Charleston, and now Columbia. Even before their first congregational gathering, a Jewish person saw they sign outside Spring Valley Baptist Church, contacted Rabbi Andy, received Jesus as his Savior and Lord, and testified to his new faith through baptism. We pray this is just a beginning. You can pray that Jewish people will inquire, attend the services, and receive Jesus Christ in response to the Good News.

Women on Mission in our association are collecting welcome baskets for international teachers coming to teach in the Richland County School Districts One and Two. They are calling on congregational missions groups and other small groups to fill a 1.5-bushel rectangular laundry basket with items needed by these new arrivals. Completed baskets are due by July 15th. Contact Cathy Locklear about details such as the items to place in the baskets at CathyLocklear@ColumbiaMetro.org or 803.622.0303.

Our One Priority Briefing and the Our One Priority Briefing Online Gathering are made possible by the financial gifts of the member and network connection congregations of the Columbia Metro Baptist Association at www.ColumbiaMetro.org, CMBA@ColumbiaMetro.org, or 803.619.7110. To donate to CMBA go to <https://www.columbiametro.org/donate/>. Congregations can make their general contributions through this link. Congregations, missions groups and individuals can designate gifts to the Congregational Grant Fund, hunger ministry, disaster response, and Baptist Collegiate Ministry.
