One Priority Briefing for Congregational Leaders from George Bullard

A Family of Congregations in the Midlands of South Carolina

Mission Focus: Unleashing FutureStories

Unleashing Future Missional Stories of Our Family of Congregations

What is Your Congregation's Future Story of Missional Ministry?

CMBA is now eight months into The Denominee Journey with the Future Church Co, along with our SC Baptist Convention and several associations around our state. We have now developed our new mission focus and statement which is stated above. Currently, we are working on our measurements and strategies for Unleashing FutureStories. The key question we should continually ask one another as congregations is – “What is your Future Story of Missional Ministry?” The ultimate question for each congregation is – “What is your sustainable movement toward your Full Kingdom Potential?”

Look for more information as this new strategy unfolds. Ultimately the new executive director will lead the association in finalizing this strategy and helping congregations unlock strategies and celebrate progress.

Columbia Metro – Mission: Local – Thursday, May 5th

CMBA is sponsoring a lunch and dialogue about what it means to engage in Mission: Local, where churches adopt an underreached community. This gathering – 11:30 a.m. at Woodfield Park Baptist Church, 1834 Morninglo Lane, Columbia, SC 29223 – will discuss what it means to go deeper than adopting a church, but to adopt a community. The Woodfield Park community has a population of 7000 people in 2800 households. It has a diverse population of Black, White, Hispanic, and Asian residents. It is alongside the Decker Road international corridor. The opportunity exists for meaningful missional services by multiple churches.
